MURDER

The Killing of Pleasant Manus by His Brother George, Gives Rise to Some Excitement Yesterday

The two persons named engaged in an ltercation monday evening, during which oung manus received the blow which reolted in his death on Wednesday morning The trouble grew out of an old feud which existed for several years. It seems that Pleasant manus had been to madisonville, where he became under the influence of liquor, and, returning in an intoxicaled state, went to the residence of his elder brother and drew a knife upon him. George, to protect himself, picked up a brick and hurled it at his assailant, striking him on the head just back of the ear, frac 7-15 a m turing the skull, and producing death as before stated

Officers Barnett and Denton were notified, who at once arrested the murderer, wes seem and now have him safely lodged in the glad of it. madisonville jail. The Coroner yesterday held an inquest ver the remains and returned a verdict in accordance with the facts as given above.

their candidates, and the eyes of the coun-try are now intent upon the proceedings of the Democrane convention at Chicago It is said that history repeats itself to show that we will have a repetition of the lattle of 1888. Cleveland has tunneled through the Tammany Hill, and is now traveling smoothly over all other presidential aspirants. The lower delegation man a great hurrals for Burse, but the Havdeeye governor has not been allied with Democracy for a sufficient length of time Palmer are more secondary figures. The Republicans are pleased and
